1 Looking for a job

Use the words below to complete the text:

qualifications	experience	section
application	interview	CV

I thought it would be quite easy to find a job when I left school, but it's been really difficult. I look through the job (1) in the local paper every week, but everybody seems to want people with lots of (2) and I didn't do very well at school. I've sent my (3) to dozens of companies in the local area but nobody has got back to me. I must have filled in at least thirty (4) forms and I've only had one reply. I went for an (5) last week but it didn't go very well – they said they wanted someone with more (6) , but I've never had a job! Sometimes I wonder if I'll ever find anything.

In the United States a CV is called a résumé.

Read the following jobs and professions and discuss which of them you'd like to do and which ones not and give reasons.

Give at least three reasons why you'd like / hate to have these jobs / professions.

- a) this job is prestigious;
- b) this job is well-paid;
- c) this job is required by the country;
- d) this job is sometimes dangerous;
- e) it needs too much writing;
- f) it involves speaking to many people;
- g) this job is thankless;
- h) this job is very hard.

Model:

— I'd like to become a geologist because I love travelling, I love geography and I think this profession is well-paid. And you?

— As for me, I'd like to become a nurse because I'd love to help people and this job is interesting. But I'd hate to be a journalist because this job is sometimes dangerous and it needs too much writing.

(a geologist, a journalist, a teacher, a doctor, a vet, a shop assistant, a bank manager, a waiter, a computer operator, a book keeper, a bookseller, a bodyguard, a cook, an interpreter, a bus driver, a farmer, a gardener, a fitter, a turner, a businessman, a clerk, a singer, a musician)
